Evolution Study Guide Flashcards | Quizlet One piece of evidence offered by Darwin is found in the science of paleontology. Paleontology deals with locating, cataloging, and interpreting the life forms that existed in past millennia. It is the study of fossils—the bones, shells, teeth, and other remains of organisms, or evidence of ancient organisms, that have survived over eons of time. Paleontology supports the theory of evolution because it shows a descent of modern organisms from common ancestors. Evidence for Evolution - CliffsNotes Study Guides field of biology that studies the diversity of populations at the level of the gene; interests in how genetic diversity in populations changes over generation and in forces that causes population to evolve. gene pool. the alleles of all genes in all individuals in a population. allele frequency. Study 95 Terms | Biology Flashcards | Quizlet A great evolution experiment is for students to make observations of bone structures of different animals.
