Fear City New Yorks Fiscal —Jonathan Mahler, The New York Times Book Review “Fear City is the best account of the New York City fiscal crisis of the 1970s and, more than that, an indispensable contribution to understanding the rise of austerity economics and the long decline of the public sector. This is a history with huge implications for the remaking of American politics and economics in our time.” Fear City: New York's Fiscal Crisis and the Rise of ... Fear City is a fascinating look at New York City's fiscal crisis in the 1970s. Phillips-Fein is a great storyteller who synthesized a vast amount of data to generate an exceptionally well-organized and written documentary. The detail may be a bit excessive. But every chapter and subsection flows smoothly. She has a liberal bias.
