Accidents and Disasters The Control of Major Accident Hazard Regulations (COMAH) apply to establishments that have, or can anticipate having, threshold quantities of dangerous substances. The regulations are goal setting and place a duty on operators of establishments to take all measures necessary to prevent and limit the consequences of a major accident. Lessons learned about preparing COMAH safety reports While after action reviews produce valuable lessons, lessons alone are not the end of the story. In fact, lessons learned should rightly be the beginning of a new chapter in a fire department's operational behaviors. Lessons without a corresponding change in operational behavior are not
