Nte Teachers Intermediate Teachers are required to earn a bachelor's degree, complete education courses, gain student-teaching experience and pass a statewide exam to become certified. The state exam used to be referred to as the National Teacher Examination, commonly known as the NTE. However, the NTE teacher certification exam has been replaced with the Praxis Series tests, which consist of Praxis Series I and Praxis Series II tests. NTE Teacher Certification | Bizfluent The National Teacher Exam (NTE), also known as the Praxis series tests is what's used for teacher licensure and certification. This test is a requirement and part of the teacher licensing process. In order to be eligible to take the test, applicants must meet certain criteria which varies from state to state. For example, in Maryland applicants must have a bachelor's degree or higher and complete an approved teacher education program. How to Get Results from the National Teacher Examination ...
