International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP). “When properly developed and implemented, a policy-procedure manual provides staff with the information to act decisively, consistently, and legally. Police Policies and Procedures Manual Best Practices ... Governments empower police to compel individuals to comply with the law; they allow officers to stop, search, detain, cite, and arrest citizens and to use physical and sometimes deadly force. If police use those powers improperly, they can abuse the civil rights of the very citizens they are supposed to protect. Thus, it is critical that police be accountable for their policies and behaviour. police | Definition, History, Organizations, & Facts ... THIS is not so much a
