book was unputdownable. Misery meets Single White Female with a twist. I have read books by Sue Watson before and among the many volumes I have read over the years, her stories still stick in my mind. The previous books were unlike this one. They were chick lit. Soft and airy. Fun. Nothing like this book. This is hard core psychological stuff. The Woman Next Door: An unputdownable psychological ... A twisty involved tale, Pippa, the writer, Pippa the blogger, Pippa the lonely one who lets an unemployed ex con into her house where he soon begins to take over - from a distance. Truly a psychological thriller, a term often tagged onto other novels which are clearly not. Amazon.com: The Proposal: An unputdownable
